

G'day Guardians!

PAX AUS has let us take over the Wombat Theatre this year - and you're invited to come see THE SPARROWING.

The Sparrowing

FRI 10/11 10:30 AM - 12:00 PM

WOMBAT THEATRE

Bring back sparrow racing! Our team of panelists go head-to-head in a rough-and-tumble self-made sparrow race. Obstacles in-game and in-person can be voted on by donors to ensure panelists are kept on their toes throughout the entire race. Come watch, cheer on, and vote our panelists to the finish line!

We've confirmed that Bungie is bringing out Victoria Dollbaum to be on the panel with us. Yep. Bungie's Design Director is coming to hang out with us for the panel!

We will be playing on 3 PCs, and each PC will have a faction designation: Future War Cult, Dead Orbit or New Monarchy. While racing, doing tricks on the sparrow will give points for that faction. The most points at the end of the panel gets a trophy!

More importantly, the panel will be livestreamed and viewers/attendees can watch and donate to the charity Cure Cancer. These tiers will dictate what panellists will have to do while racing. Current tiers are:

- $5: Swap out with someone else
- $10: Drive backwards for 10 seconds
- $20: Get off sparrow and kill 10 enemies

- $30: Play a private match of Rumble
- $40: Do the nearest lost sector
- $50: Race with only your elbows for 10 seconds
- $75: Race watching the Wombat Theatre screen for 10 seconds
- $100: Play while blindfolded while someone gives you directions for 10 seconds

The Roster:

- SuperAngryBro
- KeepetClassy
- LiftYourGame
- tamsinwood
- Phammy
- toni
- Myelin Games
- LogPowerslave

Our panellists have shown themselves to be loyal Guardians and capable gun-toting professionals. We'll be working with them to make this an amazing panel and stream!

Thank you for your time Guardian, and as Lord Shaxx always says, "What do you mean you can't concentrate when I'm yelling!? RELAX!"
